

CV Albert García Lus

Albert Garcia Lus works in the Ministry of Territory and Sustainability of the Autonomous Government of Catalonia. He has the qualifications of Chemical engineer for the Chemical Institute of Sarrià (IOS) and Industrial engineer specialist in Chemistry by the Ramon Llull University (URL). He has participated in several courses, conferences and seminars related to air pollution issues and he has worked in different tasks in the "Service of Monitoring and Control of the Air" of the Regional Government among which they stand out the ones related with Air Quality Plans in Catalonia and in several Mediterranean urban areas within the UE SMAP project. At present he is the responsible for the Technical Office of Air Quality Plans that takes care of the management and update of the Air Quality Plan of 40 towns of the metropolitan area of Barcelona approved by the Regional Government of Catalonia.

